48 HOURS

02/04/17

48 HOURS: "Guilty Until Proven Innocent" - a report about the cases against Dameon Pinkins and Roosevelt Glenn: two Indiana men, a 1989 gang rape, and the DNA evidence at the time that did not tie either man to the crime. Yet, both were convicted, spending years in prison before new DNA technology changed their fates. Pinkins and Glenn vowed they were innocent. Prosecutors had evidence and a victim who said she could identify one of the five alleged attackers. At trial, prosecutors also argued that DNA testing was new and unreliable -- both were convicted. Their cases drew the attention of Indiana law professor Fran Watson who, along with her students, continued to search for clues over a fifteen year period. Everything changed for them when a new technology called TrueAllele came along, which could separate the genetic mixture in DNA evidence. This new technology has the potential to change the outcome in thousands of cases nationwide. Glenn had been released from prison after 17 years for good behavior, and Pinkins was released after 26 years when prosecutors overturned their convictions. On-screen text graphic: Just this week Roosevelt Glenn's conviction was officially overturned. He will now move to have his name expunged from the Federal Sex Offenders Registry. Darryl Pinkins is living with his nephew and is looking for a job. Interviewed: Roosevelt Glenn and Dameon Pinkins; Glenn family members: Sally Glenn, Darniese Glenn, Renitta Stout; Pinkins family members: Mildred Pinkins, Darryl Pinkins, Tracy Pinkins; Mike Solan (retired Detective Lieutenant, Hammond, Indiana); Fran Watson (Indiana University Law Professor); Law students Max, Brenda, and Polly (no last names); Joe Curosh (former Lake County prosecutor); Greg Hampikian (DNA expert); Karen Freeman-Wilson (former public defender/current Mayor, Gary, Indiana); Dr. Mark Perlin (DNA expert/inventor of TrueAllele); Bernard Carter (Lake County Prosecutor) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Judy Rybak)

02/11/17

48 HOURS: "Murder in Beverly Hills" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on new details in the ongoing saga of millionaire Robert Durst. Featured in this episode is the first in-depth look at an unprecedented recent interview that infamous millionaire and alleged killer Robert Durst gave to a prosecutor looking to put him in prison. Also included is a review of the allegations about his missing wife; his alleged ties to the 2000 murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her home -- a case the police have spent years trying to solve. Durst wasn't considered a suspect in Berman's death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston, Texas. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense and he then cut up Black's body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Next week, Durst is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of Susan Berman. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years -- as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? On-screen text graphic: Next week a secret witness in the Susan Berman murder case will reportedly offer new incriminating testimony about Robert Durst. Kathie Durst's family has filed a civil suit against Robert Durst. They're asking for one hundred million dollars. Included are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack; Stephen Silverman; Lisa DePaulo; Jeannine Pirro; Det. Cody Cazalas; Emily and Stewart Altman; Paul Coulter; Chip Lewis; Charles Bagli; Dr. Milton Altschuler; Andrew Jarecki; Steve Cooley; Jack Leonard. 48 HOURS: "The Strange Life of Dr. Schwartz" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation into the death of beloved physician Dr. Steven Schwartz, found dead, seemingly as a result of a botched robbery; how his life came to such a violent end; and insight into a series of mysteries connected to him and his family. Schwartz, a wealthy well-respected kidney specialist was found dead -- shot, stabbed and beaten. Police discovered his body in his home after his second wife Rebecca called to report a robbery. Police investigation uncovered a family with strained relationships, different allegations on what may have happened and a secret life that Dr. Schwartz had hidden from his offspring. A year after the murder, police arrested Leo Anton Stragaj, an employee of Schwartz's. Stragaj admitted to seeing the body and not calling police, he says due to his immigration status. He says he did not commit murder and says that Schwartz's wife had something to do with it, because she asked him to find someone to kill Dr. Schwartz and has set him up. Also uncovered in the investigation were reports about Schwartz killing a dentist in 1961 in a botched robbery attempt in New Mexico. He spent nine years in prison before his sentence was commuted. He and his accomplice, Phillip Dyer, went on to live accomplished lives. Carter Schwartz, his son from his first marriage, was completely unaware of this information. Friends and colleagues suspect that Rebecca Schwartz was involved. Police believe that Rebecca Schwartz used this information to blackmail Dr. Schwartz. Rebecca Schwartz has sold the medical practice, moved to Wisconsin, and has caused heartache for another woman. Carter Schwartz has a civil suit filed against Rebecca Schwartz. On-screen text graphic: The gun and the knife used to kill Doctor Schwartz have never been found. 48 HOURS: "Eleven Hundred Miles to Murder" - an investigation into the 2015 murder of Dr. Teresa Sievers, a Bonita Springs, Florida doctor murdered inside her home and the investigation that led to two suspects eleven hundred miles away in Missouri. Police initially suspected her husband Mark Sievers, but he had an airtight alibi. A tip led police on a 1,000 mile trip that took the case in an unexpected direction. Mark Sievers believed there might be a tie to other suspicious deaths of doctors around the country. Eventually, Mark Sievers became a person of interest. Two months after the murder, police arrested two men in Missouri and charged them with Dr. Sievers murder: Curtis Wayne Wright (aka Wayne Wright), and Jimmy Ray Rogers (aka "The Hammer") traveled from Missouri to Florida and murdered Dr. Sievers. What would be the motive? Police learned that Wayne Wright was a friend of Mark Sievers; that Mark had taken out five life insurance policies on Dr. Sievers; that the two had an open marriage, money problems and other serious issues. Eight months after the murder, facing the death penalty, Wayne Wright admitted to killing Dr. Sievers and accused Mark Sievers of being the mastermind behind the crime. Mark Sievers was then charged with the murder of his wife. Mark Sievers and Jimmy "The Hammer" Rogers have both pleaded not guilty and will be tried together. On-screen text graphic: Mark Sievers and Wayne Wright are being held in different jails. Teresa's mother is now guardian of the Sievers children. No trial date has been set. 48 HOURS: "Stalking: Out of the Shadows" (9:00-10:00p) and "Stalked" (10:00-11:00p) - a two-part investigation into stalking -- the victims, the stalkers, the dangers and long-term psychological damage this torment causes; and the efforts by actress Pauley Perrette to change ineffective laws that do not protect the victims. She was shot dead by an obsessed fan she did not know was stalking her who showed up at a concert armed with two handguns and pulled the trigger, killing Grimmie and himself. Perrette does not think her stalker will ever leave her alone.

Leonora Claire has been stalked by a man she met only once, who read about her in a magazine and came to an art exhibit she curated. Serial stalker Justin Massler has been obsessed with her for nearly six years and she has lived in constant fear, believing he could harm her at any time. Massler, who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, will not leave her alone. In 2010, he was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump, and previously targeted the Kardashian family. Now, the secret service is interested in him because of the Trump connection. Included is an interview with Massler, whom anchor Erin Moriarty tracked down and conducted an interview via the internet. His mother says he is living near her in Nevada and is getting medication. He has not contacted Leonora Claire in four months. On-screen text graphic: Christina Grimmie's new single "Invisible" was just released by her family, ZXL Music and Republic Records. PREEMPTION

03/11/17

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Afraid of the Dark" - Jennifer Schuett was just 8 years old in 1990 when she was yanked through her bedroom window by an unknown man - and then strangled, slashed and left for dead in a field off a gravel road in Dickinson, Texas. She didn't die - and the kidnapper couldn't silence her. This is story of Schuett's will to live, her unwavering focus on pushing police to find her kidnapper, and how through the trauma she found a purpose in life by advocating for other crime victims. Schuett was alone in her bedroom, when she woke up in the arms of a man carrying her outside of the apartment building where she lived with her mom. He said he was an undercover police officer and that they would meet up with her mother. Both were lies. He took her to the field, tried to strangle her, and raped her and slashed her throat before driving away. When she came to, she couldn't scream, couldn't lift her head or even move. She was found by children playing in the field. Her assailant didn't count on Schuett living, let alone having an acute ability to recall critical details of the man. While in the hospital, Schuett, struggling with a fear of men and police because of the attack, began writing notes describing her kidnapper. His name was Dennis. She was also able to give a forensic sketch artist a detailed description of him. Despite the details, years went by with no suspects or closure. The case was passed between detectives, and each time it felt like she was starting over. Then, 18 years after the attack, Schuett got a call from Detective Tim Cromie from the Dickinson Police Department. He was now on her case. Cromie vowed to do everything he could until the end of his career to get the answers she so longed to find. Cromie partnered with FBI Special Agent Richard Rennison to work on the case. In September 2017, utilizing DNA technology that was not available before, Rennison got a call: the kidnapper's identity had been established. His name is Dennis Earl Bradford. On-screen text graphic: Jennifer has become a fierce advocate for other crime victims. Interviewed: Jennifer Schuett; Ralph Garcia (former detective); Dr. Cheryl L. Strunk; Sharon McBride (pediatric nurse); Lois Gibson (forensic artist), Tim Cromie (Dickinson Police Department); Richard Rennison (FBI Special Agent). (C: Michelle Miller - P: Stephen A. 48 HOURS: "Death on Valentine's Day" – a retitled and updated rebroadcast of "What Did the Children See?" (OAD: 02/20/16), focusing on Curtis Lovelace, a former Quincy, Illinois prosecutor on trial for the second time, for the February 14, 2006 murder of his wife, Corey Lovelace. The main question in this case is the cause of Cory Lovelace's death -- alcohol abuse or murder. Lovelace was an All-American high school athlete who went on to become a prosecutor who seemed to have everything including a successful career and a loving family. On Valentine's Day 2006, Lovelace returned home after dropping his children off at school to find his wife dead. After an investigation, the cause of death was never determined and the case was closed. Eight years later, in 2014, a Quincy detective reopened the case. This investigation determined the cause of death as suffocation. Lovelace was arrested and charged with murder. The case hinged on two things – science and the testimony of the Lovelace children. The first trial resulted in a hung jury and a mistrial was declared. Lovelace has remarried twice since his wife's death. At the time of the second trial, the family was and still is deeply divided: daughter Lyndsey Lovelace has not spoken to her family since Lovelace's arrest and is moving on with her life. His first ex-wife Erika Gomez was a witness at the second trial. Following the second trial, more than ten years after his wife's death, Curtis Lovelace walked out a free man after being found not guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Lovelace's new trial date is scheduled for May 31st. Curtis Lovelace's bail was set at five million dollars. He remains in jail. On-screen text graphic for the 03/18/17 Rebroadcast: Christine Lovelace adopted Curtis' three sons. Lyndsay was already 18 years old. Christine and Curtis are undecided if they will return to live in Quincy. Interviewed: Bob Goush (journalist); Marty Didriksen (Cory Lovelace's mother); Steve Belko, Beth Dobrzynski (Cory Lovelace's friends); Lyndsay Lovelace (daughter); Cole Miller (EMT); James Keller (Deputy Coroner); Adam Gibson (Quincy detective); Dr. Jane Turner (Asst. 48 HOURS: "What Happened in Apartment 1601?" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. Original on-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. On-screen text graphic for the 03/25/17 Rebroadcast: Just yesterday, Rahul Gupta's latest appeal was denied. Nancy and William Waugh have filed a wrongful death suit against Rahul Gupta. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors). 48 HOURS: "The Alternate Suspects" (10:00-11:00p) – a followup to "Playing By the Rules" (OAD: 03/12/16), itself a follow-up to "The Guessing Game" (OAD: 12/06/08), featuring an interview with David Mark Temple, a former football star turned coach who was convicted in 2007 for the 1999 murder of his pregnant wife Belinda, who was shot dead in their Katy, Texas home. He spent nine years in prison, vowing he was innocent. In December 2016, he was released from prison after the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals found he didn't get a fair trial. Temple talks about his life, evidence not admitted in his first trial that he believes can clear him, his family and the future. After years of delays and little evidence, Temple was eventually convicted in 2007, in a trial that pitted two the biggest names in the legal world: renowned defense attorney Dick DeGuerin and prosecutor Kelly Siegler. Five years later, a new witness came forward. An investigation led Temple's new attorneys to allege that the prosecutor, Siegler, had withheld crucial evidence from the defense. In July 2015, a hearing was held to determine if Temple had received a fair trial. The judge ruled in Temple's favor. The case was then in the hands of a higher court. In December 2016, after nine years in prison, Temple was released. Kim Ogg, the new DA in Harris County has promised to personally review the case and decide whether to drop the charges, or prosecute David Temple all over again. Belinda's family still maintains that Temple is responsible. On-screen text graphic: Stanley Schneider is now handling David Temple's case alone. Belinda Temple's family has asked for a special prosecutor to be assigned before a decision about a retrial for David is reached. Interviewed: David Mark Temple; Steve Clappart (Harris D.A. office investigator); Dean Holtke (Crime Scene Technician); Casie Gotro and Stanley Schneider (Temple's new attorneys); Kelly Siegler (Prosecutor); Dick DeGuerin (original defense attorney).
